Life.

The poets exclamation : "O Life! I feel thee bounding in my veins," is a 61 63 39 103 103 101 58 115 10 90 37 125 68 54 50 39 24 96 46 43 1325 446 joyous one. Persons that can rarely or never make it, in honesty to themselves, are among the most unfortunate. They do not live, but exist; for to live implies more than to be. To live is to be well and strong-to rise feeling equal to the ordinary duties of the day, and to retire not overcome by them-to feel life bounding in the 82 67 30 121 78 83 67 117 14 115 44 112 86 51 44 43 23 59 35 69 1340 148 veins. The weak, run-down, or debilitated, from any cause, should not fail to take it. It builds up the system, changes existence into life and makes life more abounding. 59 67 40 102 107 97 64 98 3 108 38 108 71 54 52 44 18 109 47 48 1334 123 1 13 5 18 11 12 6 30 7 6 6 3 16 12 5 2 6 2 8 169 We are glad to say these words in its favor to the readers of our columns,

The election returns occupy several columns in this week's paper usually devoted to local news items, and local happenings have to a certain extent been lost sight of in the excitement of the hour. We take it for granted, however, that our readers are more interested in the election returns just now than in any other news of the county and state, and we are pleased to be able to give the complete official count at this early date. The work of putting these returns in type has required many hours of painstaking labor, but there is compensation in the belief that our readers will appreciate 64 60 46 108 101 101 58 90 8 108 43 118 70 49 52 44 27 102 51 44 1344 280 the returns in tabulated form and that many of them will preserve this 49 82 46 126 97 82 69 92 2 118 34 107 80 98 83 70 27 84 43 58 1447 506 copy of the Observer for future
